

First Congregational Church Highlights Newsletter October 2024

Dear Beloved Community,

As we embrace the changing season, I'm excited to announce our stewardship campaign, Imagine What We Can Create Together. This fall, we'll explore holy imagination through a worship series that encourages us to envision a future rooted in our shared values.

Beginning October 20th and continuing through November, we will consider what it means to envision a future shaped by our shared values and aspirations. This worship series will not only celebrate our collective gifts but also challenge us to think beyond our current realities. What can we create together as a community of faith? How might our dreams for justice, compassion, and love take root in our neighborhood and beyond?

Each Sunday, we'll hear messages from our members and delve into scripture that calls us to dream boldly and act courageously. This is not just about financial stewardship; it's about hope and collaboration. I invite you to invest your time, talents, and treasures in our community as we cultivate a vibrant space for love and justice.

Let us open our hearts and minds to the possibilities that lie ahead. As we imagine what we can create together, may we also be reminded of the abundance that surrounds us—the gifts of creativity, resilience, and compassion that each of you brings to our community.

Thank you for being an integral part of this journey. I look forward to dreaming and creating with you!

In faith and imagination,

~ Rev. Ann-Marie

.S. Don't miss our stewardship celebration on the last Sunday of November—let's share our commitments and celebrate our vision together!

Children's Ministry

Dear FCC Families,

WELCOME BACK SUNDAY

Our "Reconnection Celebration" was fun as we played a game to learn about some of the things we have in common, sang some songs and did an art project. Each child created a flower to place on our bulletin board to reflect the theme "We Blossom in God's Garden".

CURRICULUM

Our Progressive Christian elementary curriculum "A Joyful Path" got us thinking about and discussing who and what God is, who Jesus was and the wealth of history, wisdom and stories that are found in the Bible. These topics are so rich that we'll circle around and revisit so we can deepen our understanding.

The younger children enjoyed hearing the Creation Story as it was presented in the "Frolic" curriculum. Cari had lots of ways for the children to explore the story of all that God created, including viewing rocks, shells, flowers, and leaves using a magnifying glass.

In October, the preschoolers will learn about Noah, Abraham and Sarah.

Children's Ministry

PRAYGROUND

The PrayGround is open for the children when they arrive at church and until they go upstairs to Sunday School. Cari Chacon will be there to welcome them.

SIGN-IN/SIGN-OUT

Thank you, parents, for taking the time to fill out the registration forms, one per family. They are available on-line and at the Welcome Table in the Narthex. And thank you for stopping by the Welcome Table to say good morning and to sign your child/ren in if they will be joining us upstairs for Sunday School. I'll be there to welcome you and answer any questions.

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES IN OCTOBER

The children are invited to participate in the talent show on Sunday afternoon at 3:00 on October 20. Those who sign up to be in a skit will rehearse for a short time after Sunday School each week.

On Sunday, October 27, the children will do a service project and will be setting up some fun and spooky snacks for everyone after church.

VOLUNTEERING

To offer our classes, we do need an extra volunteer helper each week. There is much joy in assisting with our wonderful children. Please consider signing up for a Sunday. A sign-up sheet will be in the Atrium. There is a necessary screening and some procedures for volunteers to follow. It will be easy to do, worthwhile for you and invaluable for the program. We deeply appreciate your willingness.

My  to yours,
Marelu Greco
Children's Ministry Leader

Here's what's in store for October

- 6th: No Youth Group (Margaret will be back East leaf-peeping and celebrating her mom's 80th Birthday!)
- 13th 10am-1pm: Work Party with Andy Asmus and J.R. Van Slyke!
Walla Walla's own Jim McGwin of Hot Poop fame and his wife, Dr. Pat McIlvaine have a back porch that needs to be torn down and hauled away. It has been falling apart for a while, and is in the way of accessing the house siding which is in need of serious repair. Andy offered to Pat and Jim that I could muster some enthusiastic, young workers to help with the demolition project, and they're stoked. Andy will bring necessary tools, gloves, and the dump trailer so we can just load the junk and go.
- 20th: Talent Show prep and Silly Games — Cora Jane, Eliza, Theo and Kellen are sure to make our sides ache with laughter! You'll be sorry if you miss their act, trust me!
- 27th: Round Two of Elder Interviews begins.

Rest in Power, Bernice and Kris

There is a song that accompanies me this time of year, as the earth draws resources back into herself, sequestering energy for the next burst of life; as we prepare for more stillness, darkness and our own inward-turning; as I light my first fire of the year on the first chilly night; and especially as I clear space to create my offrenda for Day of the Dead. This year the song is extra poignant, as Bernice Johnson Reagon is now numbered among our ancestors. And Kris Kristofferson, whom my Dad had the great joy of being arrested with in the '80's protesting nuclear testing in Nevada. Rest in Power. Rest in Peace. Continue to share your wisdom from the other side....

BREATHS

Listen more often to things than to beings
Listen more often to things than to beings
Tis' the ancestors' breath
When the fire's voice is heard
Tis' the ancestor's breath
In the voice of the waters

Those who have died have never, never left
The dead are not under the earth
They are in the rustling trees
They are in the groaning woods
They are in the crying grass
They are in the moaning rocks
The dead are not under the earth

Those who have did have never, never left
The dead have a pact with the living
They are in the woman's breast
They are in the wailing child
They are with us in our homes
They are with us in this crowd
The dead have a pact with the living

PILGRIM'S PROGRESS

by Kris Kristofferson

Am I young enough to believe in revolution
Am I strong enough to get down on my knees and pray
Am I high enough on the chain of evolution
To respect myself, and my brother and my sister
And perfect myself in my own peculiar way

I get lazy, and forget my obligations
I'd go crazy, if I paid attention all the time
And I want justice, but I'll settle for some mercy
On this Holy Road through the Universal Mind

continued

I get lazy, and forget my obligations
I'd go crazy, if I paid attention all the time
And I want justice, but I'll settle for some mercy
On this Holy Road through the Universal Mind

I got lucky, I got everything I wanted
I got happy, there wasn't nothing else to do
And I'd be crazy not to wonder if I'm worthy
Of the part I play in this dream that's coming true

I get lazy, and forget my obligations
I'd go crazy, if I paid attention all the time
And I want justice, but I'll settle for some mercy
On this Holy Road through the Universal Mind

'i thank you God for this most amazing'

e.e. cummings

i thank You God for most this amazing
day:for the leaping greenly spirits of trees and a blue true dream of sky;and for everything which is natural which is infinite which is yes
(i who have died am alive again today,
and this is the sun's birthday;this is the birth day of life and of love and wings:and of the gay great happening illimitably earth)
how should tasting touching hearing seeing breathing any—lifted from the no
of all nothing—human merely being doubt unimaginable You?

now the eyes of my eyes are opened)

How Would You Live Then?

What if a hundred rose-breasted grosbeaks flew in circles around your head? What if the mockingbird came into the house with you and became your advisor? What if the bees filled your walls with honey and all you needed to do was ask them and they would fill your bowl? What if the brook slid downhill just past your bedroom window so you could listen to its slow prayers as you fell asleep?

What if the stars began to shout their names, or to run this way and that way above the clouds? What if you painted a picture of a tree, and the leaves began to rustle, and a bird cheerfully sang from its painted branches? What if you suddenly say that the silver of water was brighter than the silver of money? What if you finally saw that the sunflowers, turning towards the sun all day and every day—who knows how, but they do it—were more precious, more meaningful than gold?
